Dover ttilson, 1923 The play -was probabn first performed IT & see Ehz Journal, p 398 i2th March INSTRLCTIOVS FOR THE MASTERS SP Don , z$6 ics endorsed * March 1595 ' , see isth Februarv i6th March THL EV%OYS OF THE STATES Sa2i&ur| MSS* , | * 84.

*i*th March* THE SCOTTISH KING s * D*T^O\OLOG^ * A R, i :c6 , ETC, 14364 , m e in Tfc* JW/g, H>a<f Quarto , \o ix, ^92.1 Tie DOOA wa* entered on this date, but no English edition is known earner t^ar i6c- Contrary to the opinion held by those who ha\e not read r, DaemcwL%| ^s concise, well written and the best contemporary account of trie fj.ii beLe* in witchcraft

24th Man& KEEPING OF DAIRIES A P C, xxvui 3-2

2$+A March PARLEYS WITH TYRONE S ? Ireland, 2^2 pt i, 89

30^ March * VlRGIDEMIARUM/ THE LAST PART A R ,  109 , S T C 12716 , see note on 3151 March, 159" The satires T the second book are more obscure and general than in the first, but at ti^es HaL achieves some perfect eighteenth-century couplets, which was presumably tne reason why Warton praised him so highly Compare Jaques* similar apology for the satirist (As You Like It, II vii 70) ist April THE Bcri POSSESSED AT NOTTIVGHAV For authorises see note on 2Sth July yd Apnl BASTARD'S * CHRESTOLEROS * AR9m no, 5 T (7,1555, me by E V Otterson, 1842

$th April SEIZED BOOKS A?Cs-XXMU 387

6th April THE To^^ OF Tvn FORD BURNT Stow's AnnaL

•jth April SIR ROBERT CECIL RECEFVED BI THE FRENCH KD*G Birch s Historical VteiK,, p 105 , Sabsbury Papers> \ ui 90

yth 4pnl CERTAIN LETTERS INTERCEPTED Birch s Hista- n^al ftm, p 140 , Sidney Papers, u 100 loth April MR CHAPMAN TRANSLVTETH HOMER s * ILIADES * A R , in no, ST C 9 13632 Contemporaries could hardly bave failed to see an intentional likeness between Achilles in Shakespeare's Trczlus and Cre^ida and the * now living instance of the Achilleian virtues * It should be roted that Shakespeare founded the Achilles episodes on this translation, his plar presumably being privately staged either in the la*e summer of 1598 or during Essex's retirement in 1600 izth April AN ATTEMPT TO POISON A PC, xxvm 393 , see also pp 42-3, 279, 290 i4th April A SECOND PART TO * HERO AND LEANDER ' A R m 111, S T C, 19807 This continuation of Marlowe's narrame is of ro 1'teran importance, though the praise of Marlowe is significant, about ^alf is here quoted

i6th Aj>nl THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE FRENCH KING BROKE*

Camden's Ebzabeth Cecil's full and detailed account of the regonations is given in Birch's Historical Memoirs

April THE SPITAL SERMONS A PC, xxvm 408